Dear Dr. Wohlstetter:

It is indeed gratifying to receive a letter such as you sent me on 23 January. I have sent copies of it to [redacted] who presented their analytical findings to the UNO Executive Panel.

STAT

Your letter recognizes the quality and kind of analytical work that I believe is the real raison d'etre of CIA. With all the current publicity about the Agency, I wish more people outside government could come to realize this and to appreciate how important our analysis and reporting are to people who formulate and implement US national security policy. I shall try to make this point in my appearances before the various panels which are investigating the Agency.

Again, thank you for your kind words, especially at this time.

Sincerely,

The Director of Central Intelligence

Thursday, Jan 23

Dear Mr. Colby,

In the middle of the indiscriminate attack on your vital Agency, I think you might be pleased to hear about the first-class work of some members of your staff and of the reaction to it of some highly discriminating judges of such work on the CNO Executive Panel

Last Friday, Dr.

shop reported on their work. It was thoughtful & important & both men showed a nice measured appreciation of the evidence for their views. We were most impressed & grateful.

Sincerely

Robert Wohlschlag
